know where to begin! I've known you ^{almost} since I've been ~~in~~ in Texas and you're one person that makes it worth while to be here!

I think you are by far one of the nicest people I've ever met and I Love you to death!

I really enjoy partying with you and I hope you continue to party with us when we're all old and gray headed! I don't know what else to say without getting mushy so I'll quit now. Take

WHAT IS RAIDER PRIDE?

Pride is what makes us hold our head high and face the world together, because we have...

PRIDE in our school and its faculty

PRIDE in our student body and its leaders

PRIDE in our competitions

PRIDE in the victories we have won and the losses we have withstood

PRIDE in our experiences and growth

PRIDE in our differences and the things we hold in common

PRIDE in our past and the memories we share

PRIDE in our future and the hopes and dreams

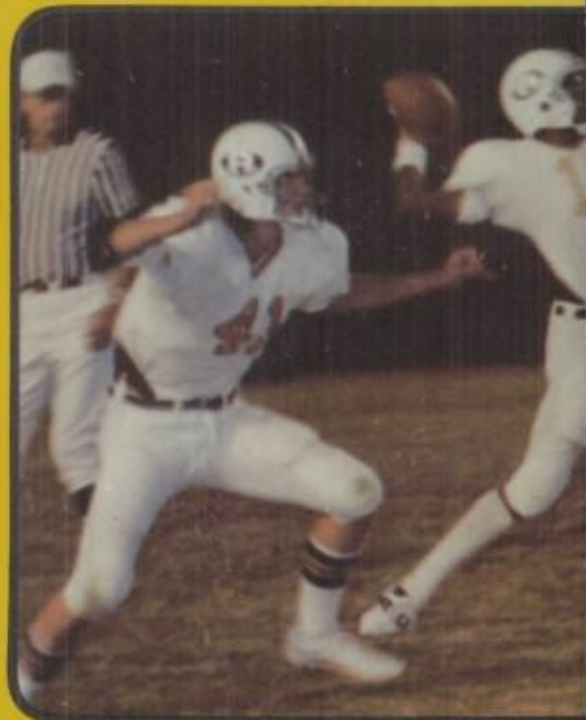

we all cherish

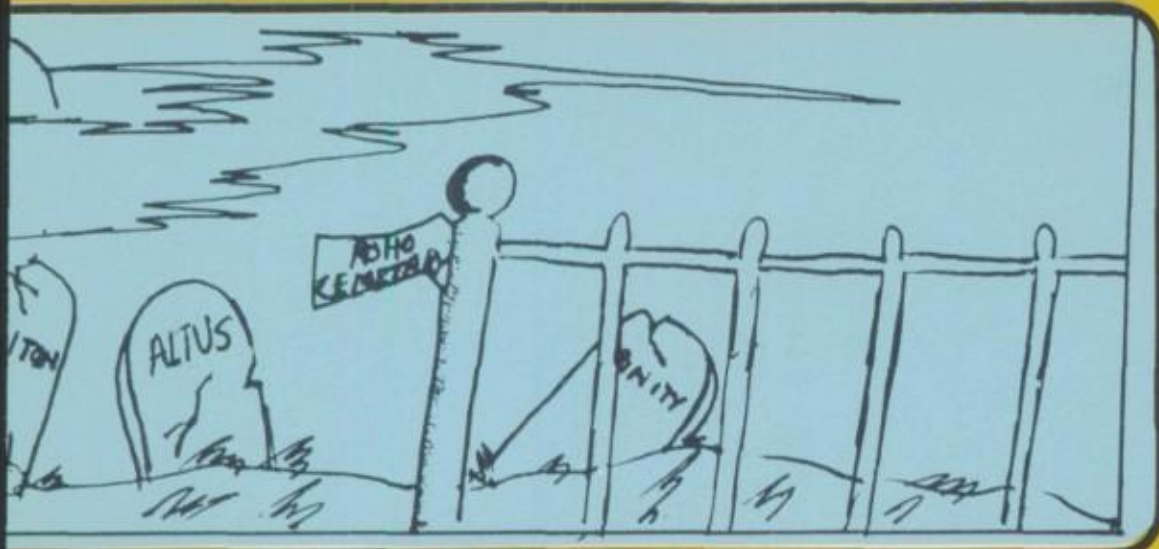

PRIDE in the promises of years to come and FINALLY

PRIDE in having been and being a RAIDER.

Dedication

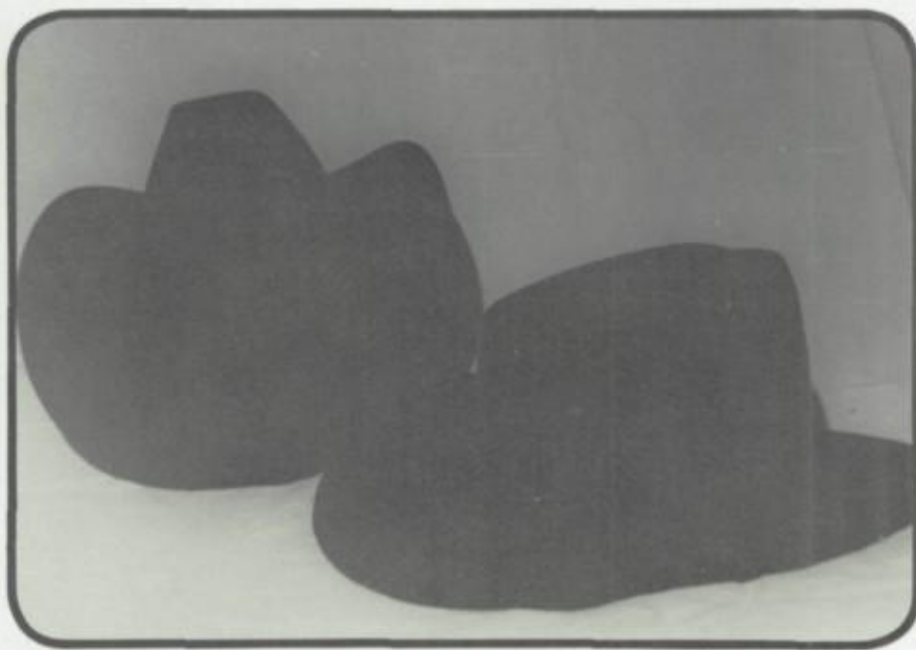

Versatility best describes the person whose voice on the public address system advises students of all school activities. As a member of the faculty for 12 years, she has been involved in helping to establish many of Rider's traditions. In addition to teaching physical education, general science and English, she has been interested and involved in student activities as sponsor of the Gym Leaders, Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society and the first Rider annual.

Because she is admired, loved and respected for her untiring efforts in devoting herself to the students in her classes and to those under her sponsorship, the student body of Rider High School proudly dedicate the 1978 Raider to Mrs. Jackye Plummer, dean of students.

ROUNDUP WEEK CLIMAXED BY CROWNING

Mr. Donald B. Cowan

*R*oundup Week, a traditional activity at Rider, was celebrated Oct. 17-21. During this special week, students dressed in western wear to promote spirit and to form a sense of unity.

In the annual Roundup Assembly, nominees for Mr. and Miss Raider were presented to the student body in a skit. Climaxing the assembly, the senior class, represented by Hal Ray, president, honored Mr. Donald B. Cowan by declaring him honorary Mr. Raider. He has displayed his loyalty to Rider throughout the years in many ways. He wrote the words and music of the alma mater and has been the master of ceremonies of the pep rallies for the last 17 years, having missed only two. Mr. Cowan has announced the Raiders' home football games for the past six years. He is also director of a cappella, Cadet and Girls Choirs.

The highlight of the week was the crowning with the traditional black hats of David Molinaro and Staci Wages as Mr. and Miss Raider at the Roundup dance. David and Staci were elected by the student body as the couple who best represented spirit and friendliness, the qualities of a true Raider.

Cheerleaders uphold Raider spirit

*O*ur cheerleaders were devoted and highly spirited. They represented Rider in all the games with their great enthusiasm.

"Through thick or thin and winning or losing, our cheerleaders demonstrated their spirit," stated Mrs. Carol Dollar, sponsor. "They showed their love for Rider, a love which grew over the years and developed into the great pride and joy they have for Rider today."

The cheerleaders introduced a new way of cheering to Rider students this year by using gymnastics and students yelled more than ever before. We can truly say that our cheerleaders were our pride of '78.

Raider Crew elevates pride

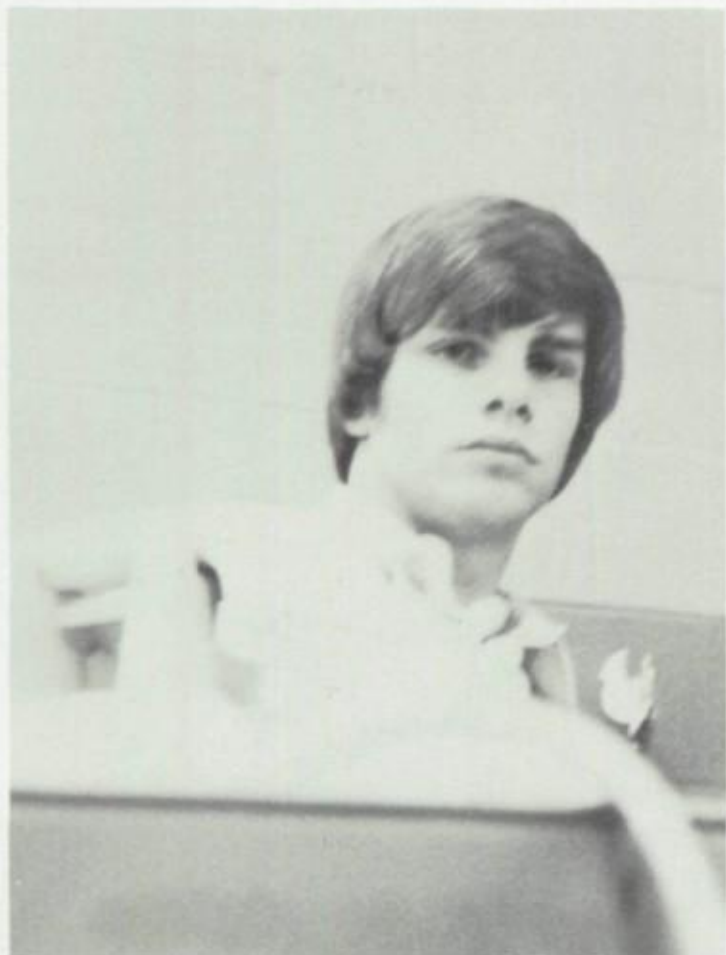

"I feel Raider Crew this year is one of the best crews Rider has had because we all worked together very hard for the same purpose--SCHOOL SPIRIT," said Bobby Teague, captain.

The Raider Crew's primary purpose throughout the year was to promote school spirit, whether standing over the unspirited in pep rallies or building signs at 3 a.m. The Raider Crew success was evident. The group promoted spirit by helping organizations with fund-raising drives throughout the year.

The group's pride and willingness to succeed made the Raider Crew as emotional as the players on the field during their times of victory and defeat.

"If I wait long enough, maybe she will call."

"Orientation was a big event for Randy."

"I hope they did not see my pants split."

"Lonnie McClellan, come on down."

"Raider Crew shows their pride by leading the Raiders on to the field."

"Bobby Teague, captain, displays a bright look."

Football Team climaxes year with Coyote win

The Raiders surged to a respectable 7-2-1 season. Fans will always remember the thrillers the Raiders put together during the course of the year in the 1977 season.

The dropped pass in the Arlington Sam Houston game ended Rider's hopes of an upset victory and a state ranking. The narrow conquest at Lewisville's homecoming proved ROHO could come from behind when they had to. Probably the most exciting Rider-Wichita Falls game ever played was this year's one-point triumph and fifth consecutive victory over the crosstown rivals.

Although a devastating loss to Denton ended ROHO's dreams for a district championship, the 1977 Rider Raider football team carried on the tradition of fine football teams at Rider High School.

Golf has swinging year

*M*ost people think that golf is easy and anybody can hit a ball with a "metal stick," but it takes much skill and time to learn to do it right. The Golf teams play 18 holes, which takes about four hours. They can split it and play nine each day. They turn in their scores for their grade.

When time for tournament play, the boys have to play 18 holes and the girls nine to qualify. The top five boys and the top five girls go to the tournament. At the tournament, the best four boys scores are added together. The lowest team score wins. This is the same way for the girls.

The Golf teams work hard, so they can have pride in being a Raider.

Swim Team shows speed and agility

*U*nforgotten hours of practice and hard work before and after school paid off for the Rider Swim Team.

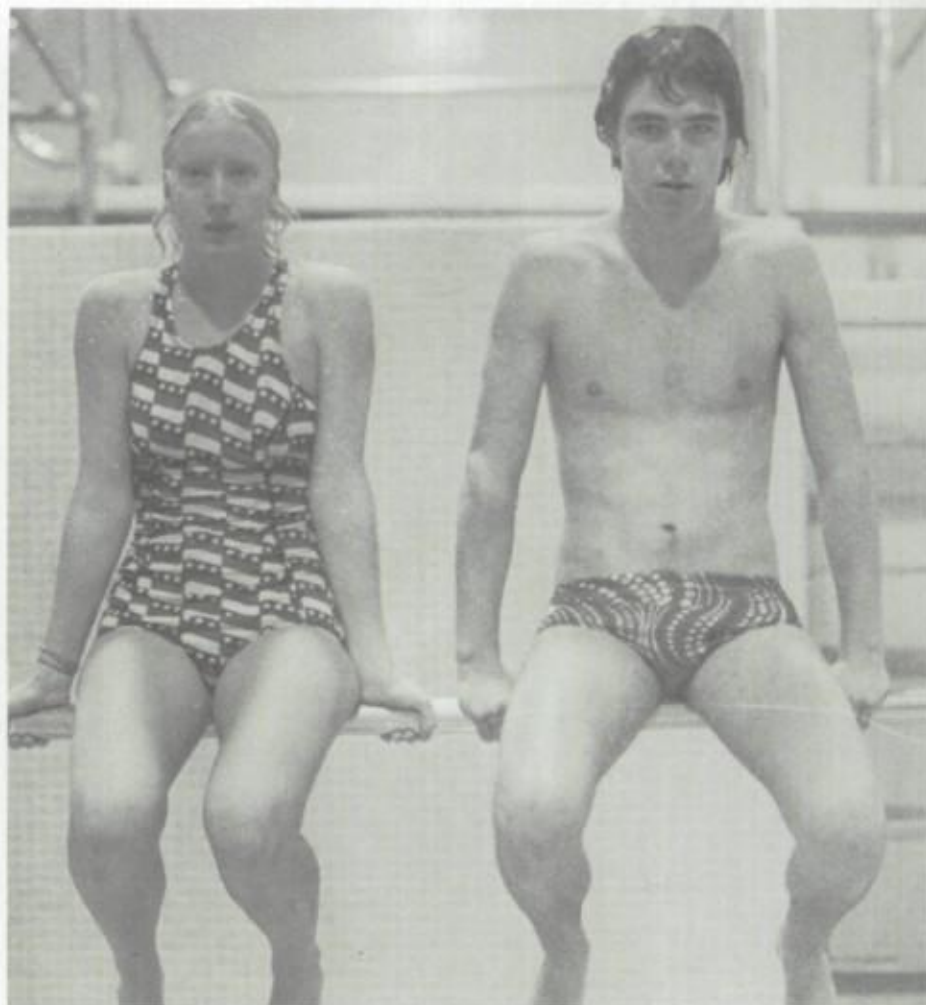

Coach Ronnie Rodgers' second-year efforts lead the swimmers to victory and established the team as large competitors because of their speed and agility.

The swim team was noted this year for their large number of students on both varsity and junior varsity.

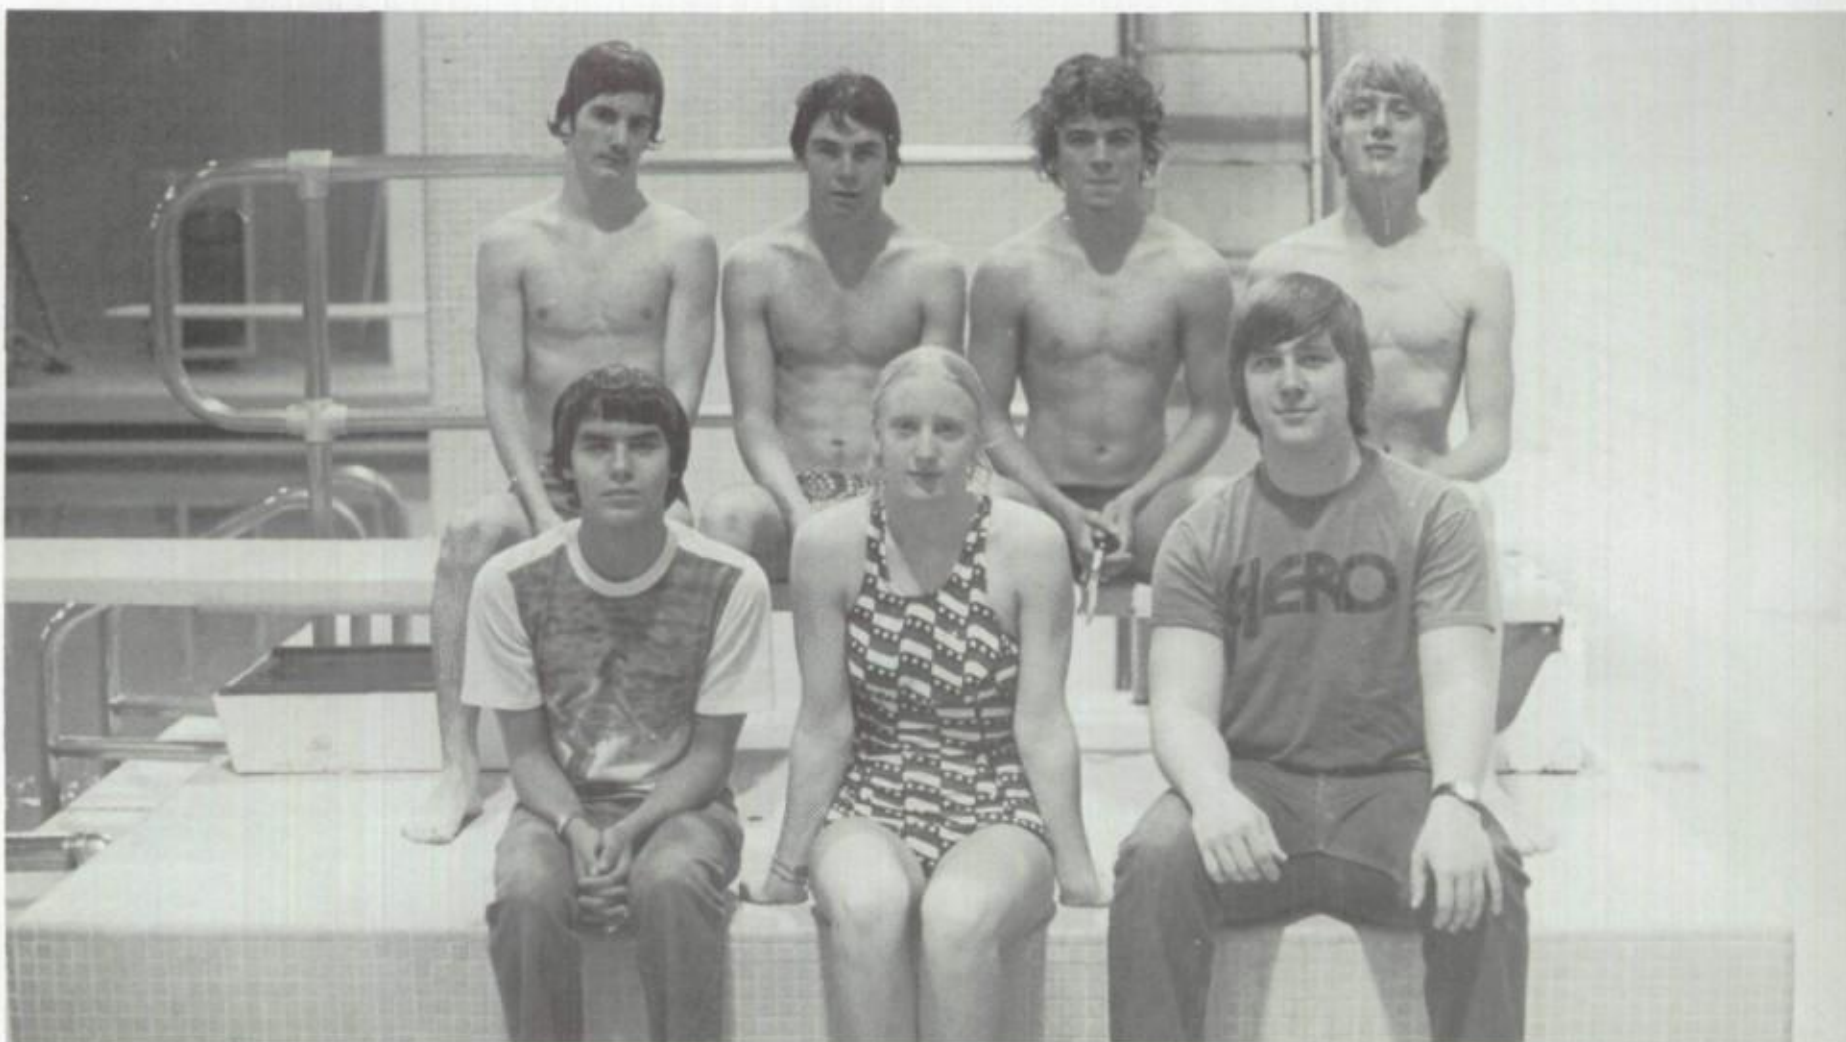

The diving team also had a very successful year. Their efforts made while in competition helped them to form a better team.

Student Council has busy year

*T*he Student Council has done many things to make Rider a better school.

The Council began the year selling football tickets and Raider Daters, calendars that listed school activities taking place during the year. Two weeks after school began, the Council had a dance with music provided by Glenn Williams.

Some of the new ideas the Council worked on included having a committee with the other schools in Wichita Falls to discuss cafeteria food. The Council also worked on beautification projects to make RHS look better and had a paper drive to make money. Also, the Student Council constitution was revised at an early Monday morning meeting.

Goal Post Decorators promote spirit

During the football season, the 45 girls decorate the main hall, the locker room and the stadium locker room each week, in addition to bringing players treats. During Coyote Week, special activities are planned such as decorating the players bedrooms and a special gym decoration. The group also plans activities for other varsity sports.

Reporters produce ROUNDUP

*W*riting stories, setting type, making and developing pictures, selling ads and working after school and Saturdays were all part of being on the Roundup staff.

Hal Ray, editor, gave reporters story assignments each month for the following paper. Hal and Mrs. Helen Johnson, sponsor, set a deadline when all stories and ads had to be in. Then everyone went to work.

As the stories came in, they were set on the computer. When the deadline rolled around, everyone was assigned a page to makeup. Pages consisted of stories, pictures and ads.

After pages were completed, they were sent to Nortex Offset Press to be printed. The next day the staff passed out the newspapers to homerooms.

Thespians present plays

The Rider Thespians consisted of a majority of all Drama II and III students. These students worked long and tiring hours to earn points to be accepted into Thespians. The Drama II and III students presented three one-act plays for the English classes during the fall. They also assisted the senior class in preparing the set and the lighting for the senior play. The Drama I students presented an evening of one-act plays in late spring. The Thespians represented Rider in the Spring UIL One-Act Play and Literary Meet. Their annual banquet brought the year to a close.

Bozo, eat your heart out!

Mr. Jaynes checks the lighting for the stage.

NFL practices public speaking

The National Forensic League was composed of speech students who participated in debate, extemporaneous speaking and oral interpretation. The students then earned sufficient points to become eligible for membership in NFL allowing them to compete at the National level. Their pride in these endeavors was for themselves and for their school as they garnered awards and recognition. For the last eight years, the Rider NFL students have placed first and second in State UIL contests, first and second at the NFL District Meet and qualified the first Wichita Falls Public High School student in extemporaneous speaking and oratory in the National Forensic League Tournaments in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Future Farmers produce honors

*F*armers are the backbone of America. Without the farmers, the United States would not be half the country that it is today.

Future Farmers of America is an organization of young people learning the processes of farming through classroom study and actual farming. The students in the advanced years of FFA go out to the school farm and cultivate the land and raise animals.

Each year, some students raise their own sheep, pigs, goats and lambs along with a variety of other animals. Their hard work pays off at various stock shows around the state. A big stock show every year that the students work hard for is the State Fair of Texas. Several students have received high honors for their work in the cattle and animal shows at the State Fair.

Active members are ones who represent Rider in area Junior rodeos. Inactive members do not participate in rodeos.

Band holds top honors

*R*eceiving a superior rating in marching was only one example of the success of the 1977-78 "Pride of the Raiders" Marching Band. Early morning practices, combined with their unending support of the Raiders created a feeling of unity and pride evident in their outstanding performances.

The highlight of the year for the marching band was a trip to Colorado in May for marching contest. The band spent the entire year working to earn money for the trip. Some of the fund-raising activities included selling magazine subscriptions, candy bars and household products. A haunted house, car wash and spaghetti supper were also sponsored.

The bands left no doubt in the minds of Raiders that the "Pride" was truly number one.

Girls Choir hits high notes

*A*t the first of the year, questions were raised about the abilities of the Girls Choir since they were a small group, but now they have come a long way. During every concert, the 39 "Strong" seemed to force all the musical abilities they had to make their Girls Choir seem like every other Girls Choir.

This year's Girls Choir became the basis of all future Rider Girls Choirs. Through their musical abilities, the Girls Choir became very successful. They are now hoping more people will join the choir to carry on their new tradition of being number one.

A cappella notes success

*T*he Rider A cappella Choir has been noted through the years as being number one. This year's proud vocal organization was also very successful.

The choir consisted of juniors and seniors who had tried out in January 1977. A cappella is a select group which proudly demonstrated its musical abilities at many concerts throughout the year.

Success began at the first concert Nov. 22, and grew with every concert to make the 1977-78 A cappella Choir "THE GREATEST CHOIR EVER."

Our years at Rider

The beginning was a mixture of emotion--excitement about the future and fear of the unknown. As the fear subsided, the excitement remained. The future became the present and the past. We experienced happiness and sadness together; we gained confidence as we accomplished our goals and overcame our disappointments.

Remember as Freshmen

That first day...getting lost...buying elevator tickets...making new friends...receiving our class yell...sign-making parties, decorating the gym...our first pep rally as Raiders...the number one ranked football team in the state...the excitement of our first Roundup Week...the ecstasy of beating the Coyotes, 27-0...Rider's first ever bi-district football team...Rustlers are RRVC co-champs...our first class dance...forgetting Bobcats and Mustangs and becoming united as Raiders...learning the true meaning of Raider Pride.

Remember as Sophomores

Beginning to feel a part of things...joining clubs...Tri-Hi-Y initiation...old enough to get a driver's license...girls choir...formation of mens choir...disecting worms and frogs...first scholastic awards test...Junior Varsity games...looking down on Freshmen...winning that game in November, 28-7...district champions...ROHO rings...dragging Kemp...Spring Game...almost upperclassmen.

Remember as Juniors

Finally upperclassmen...getting a new principal...initiating for Tri-Hi-Y...brave enough to skip out for lunch...a new band director...ordering our Senior '78 rings...our first class breakfast...mum day...a victorious climax to Coyote Week...school let out because of gas curtailment...bi-district basketball...applying for Raider Crew and Goal Post Decorators...a successful class dance...cheerleader try-outs...those last few days when we were the 'Seniors.'

Remember as Seniors

Our big year; the one we've been waiting for...being the leaders instead of the followers...back on the east side of the gym at pep rallies...inheriting old traditions...starting new ones...nominating Mr. and Miss Raider...ACT and SAT test...applying for college...Coyote Week...our last and best...Senior Play...being the first to have our class pictures in color in the annual...ordering graduation announcements...caps and gowns...graduation parties...Senior Banquet and Senior Night...reading of the Will and Prophecy...graduation...saying goodbye...Striving always to be great, Senior Class of '78.

Our time to leave these hallowed halls has come. Just as we began, so will we leave--excited, scared, yet filled with anticipation. We will take with us all that we have gained--experience, knowledge, friendships and the sadness of farewell.

Administrators work for students

Our successful year was made possible by an efficient administration system, consisting of the superintendent, assistant superintendents, directors and the school board. Dr. Lee R. Williamson, in his third year as superintendent, has proved himself capable and dedicated with the needs of students always uppermost in his mind. Under his leadership, the assistant superintendents and directors have dealt with matters including instruction, athletics and food services. The school board carries several responsibilities, such as developing and improving the educational system, policy setting and securing adequate funds for carrying out policies. The board also maintains community relations and provides qualified personnel for the Wichita Falls Independent School District.

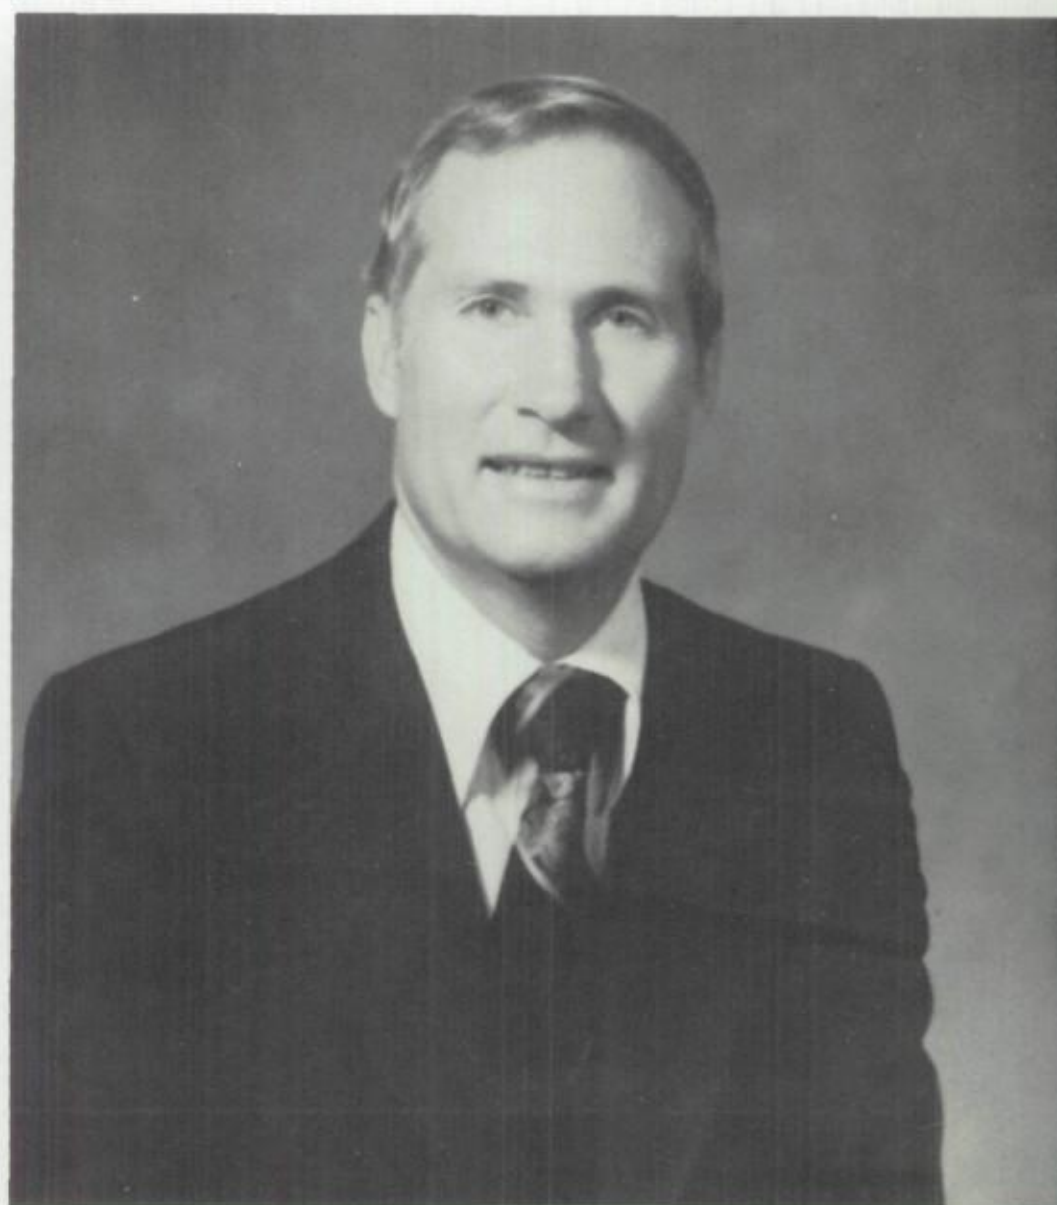

Leaders set good example for all

*A*t the head of the directing staff is our principal, Mr. Newman Young. Sharing his responsibilities are two vice principals, Mr. Marshall Gearhart and Mr. Jack Robertson and three deans, Mrs. Jackye Plummer, dean of students; Mr. Alfred Bacon, dean of pupil services; and Mrs. Celia Johnson, dean of girls. To keep Rider running smoothly is no small task with a cast of nearly 2,000 students.

Mr. Young can be found either in the halls mingling with students or in his office attending to school matters. Even though he is kept busy with official business, he still finds time to attend such activities as pep rallies, gym decorations, football and basketball games.

Playing supporting roles to Mr. Young are the vice principals whose primary duties are to work with and listen to students on a one-to-one basis. Through these men, Rider has an excellent example of true Raider pride.

Mr. Bacon handles such programs as school insurance, free lunches and textbooks. Mrs. Johnson is in charge of disciplining girls. She also sends absentee referrals to the Central Office. Coordinating the school calendar and activities is Mrs. Plummer. She guides the student body with the help of the other deans.

Mrs. Helen R. Henderson
Counselor

The counselors, based upon individual needs, advise students on courses that would be most beneficial for them to take. College-bound students may obtain up-to-date information on colleges and universities. This information includes visiting dates of college representatives, degree plans offered and requirements for admission.

For those not interested in college, counselors may get them into vocational programs. The counselors are there to help students, and every student should make an appointment to talk about their future.

The Rider office staff is composed of the personnel of the front office, office annex, principal's office and guidance office.

The front office consists of Marie Parker and Elizabeth Tyler. Their main job is to keep daily attendance records. In the office annex is Betty Spears who handles records and assists the deans and assistant principals in any way necessary.

Cheryl Bills is the principal's secretary and handles his business affairs. The guidance office is kept running efficiently by Bennie Caldwell, the transcript clerk. Janet Morlan is also in the guidance office and processes the computer data. These offices work together to help solve the problems of both students and faculty and to keep Rider functioning smoothly.

School services benefit students

Three groups of personnel seldom recognized but who perform many services for students and faculty are the school nurses, librarians and driver education teachers. The school nurse is Mrs. Sharon Foster who travels to all three high schools during the week. She comes to Rider usually on Wednesday. The clinic is supervised by Doris Ford, the school health aide the rest of the week. She treats ill or injured students.

The two libraries, the scholastic foundation of Rider, have performed countless services for all.

Mrs. Polly Moss and Mrs. Jean Salter, librarians, are assisted by Mrs. Quetta Ritchie and Mrs. Juanita Baird in keeping the two libraries up-to-date and the books in order and in good condition. They also assist students in finding books for research and enjoyment.

The Driving Education program is taught by Patricia Cobb, Bebe Combs, Geanene Guthrie, Patricia Lundy, Dorothy Patterson, Richard Ward. Students are required to be 15 years old and be able to pass a written test given by the Texas Department of Public Safety to enroll. They are taught the fundamentals of driving through simulator films and in-car experience. In classes rules and regulations are studied.

Students experiment with science

Science classes are offered at Rider so that students might understand nature and its elements. Students are required to take two years of sciences and usually pick two of these three classes physical science, biology or chemistry. For those wishing a deeper, more involved study, upper level courses are offered. These courses are Chemistry II, Biology II and Physics. Students spend class periods listening to interesting lectures, working lessons and performing experiments in school labs.

"And it's only Tuesday!"

The history department strives to help students understand their past and to help them cope with the present.

Classes are offered in World and American History to help students trace their origin, so they might better understand today's society.

Students may also take such courses as Free Enterprise, government and Texas History. These courses help students obtain a better understanding of how our government works. Combined, these courses offer a good background for a student.

Language courses broaden students' horizons

The language department consists of English, foreign languages, humanities, journalism and speech. This department is designed to provide students with a better understanding of basic grammar and literature and how to communicate. Masterwork courses are offered for all classifications for those with advanced knowledge in these areas. Besides these courses, Humanities is offered to teach languages, literature, philosophies and arts of past civilizations. Foreign languages offered are French, German, Latin and Spanish. These electives are for students interested in broadening their communication abilities.

Fine Arts helps develop talent

*T*he fine arts department has the largest number of students of all elective courses. Whether musical, artistic or dramatic, the courses are taught in such a fashion that all student participation is encouraged and enjoyed.

For those interested in art courses, Rider has courses that experiment in macrame, painting and abstract art. Drama courses teach students the mechanics of putting on a production and the finer points of acting.

Students gifted with musical talent may find several programs to further develop their talent. Students may choose from orchestra, band and choir.

Custodians and cafeteria workers perform many services for students. Custodians work many hours keeping the school clean. The cafeteria workers have had many changes this year. The biggest was the change to a new government recipe. Workers feel that because of it more people are eating in the cafeteria. Both groups work hard to make Rider a school of which to be proud.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT

Student Life is a new section of the annual intended to depict the daily activities of students, both school related and extra-curricular. Students' jobs, school organizations, weekend activities, athletic groups and community groups are all substances making up student life.

Students seek jobs for many reasons. Around Christmas time, many jobs are obtained to help buy Christmas presents. The majority of students were found to be working at Sikes Senter Mall.

School organizations also occupy students time. Such organizations are Goal Post Decorators, Future Teachers of America, Future Farmers of America, Industrial Arts Club, Debate, Drama, Band, Orchestra and Star Trek Club.

Latin, German and Spanish have their individual clubs that provide many activities for students.

Weekend activities for most were found to be made up of movies, dates or merely spending a Friday or Saturday night dragging Kemp Street.

Athletic groups are football, basketball, baseball, track, tennis, golf, soccer and swimming in which many students participate.

These activities along with many others are what Student Life is all about. It is constructed to show people what many individuals are involved in and what interests they have.

Anthony,

I'm so glad that I met you this year - You have got to be the nicest guy that I have ever met in my entire life (& I don't write that in everybody's annual). You've really made my year - or at least helped it out a hell of a lot - I love to party w/ you. You're a blast to be around - "When in doubt ask Antonio!" I'm sorry this looks so slopp but - you know how it goes! Well I can't think of anything else to say except, "I'll never better quit being close buddies" Please be good!

Love ya always,

Sara (Furg)

P.S. Remember - "you made me be a freak!" (uh-huh!)

Don't you go changing cuz' you are a fantastic guy. Really!! I had if you ever need someone to talk to. You know me, remember I'll always be there. You live can go partying sometime this summer. Keep in touch, Anthony!! I mean it when I said you are a great person. Stop everything turn your head in life. You deserve the best of everything. Be good and keep yourself straight out of trouble.

Anthony,

got put in art so I could get to know ya. This year, you're really a lot of fun to talk to, art sure would have been boring without ya. Even though you were Mrs. King's pet, well what else can I say? You're really nice! I'll never meet any one quite like you (that's a compliment!) Really like just talking to you, I guess that's because you're kinda crazy! (haha) Don't ~~be~~ hardly! Take me serious cause I'm usually just playin. I hope I see ya ~~soon~~ ^{at} this summer. I'll look for you when & you can look for my bug! Don't party too much & try to stay out of trouble. I'll see ya later (alligator).

Chow,

How ya

Anthony

Anthony:

So a real sweet guy who I could of had fun with. But what the hell. May you better come by this summer and take me swimming and take me to get high. Stay the way you are and you'll go far in life and remember I will always care for you. So stay cool.

Love ya always

Pride

A stirring, a restlessness deep, inside

A leaping fire, that is pride.

A current flowing wild and wide,

Swelling, growing, that is pride.

A winged spirit where eagles bide,

A soaring wind-song, that is pride.

And the sea, with every tide,

Tosses white maned heads with pride.

Here we stand, our wings untried,

Heart in heart, side by side.

And by a cord are we close tied

A cord of timeless, unbroken pride.
